

Programming Assignment 2-3

Write a program to check if two given Strings are Anagrams of each other. Your function should return true if two Strings are Anagrams, false otherwise. A string is said to be an anagram if it contains the same characters and same length, but in a different order, e.g. army and Mary are anagrams. You can ignore cases for this problem.